

I strongly oppose the FCC's current proposal to abandon net neutrality. I compel you to continue protecting net neutrality as outlined under Title II of the Communications Act. Do not allow the American people to fall victim to a fate of paid prioritization on the internet.